Veritone aiWARE

The Operating System for Artificial Intelligence

Hi Martin,

Every organization has a vast library of data at their disposal. What makes aiWARE so incredible is its ability to ingest data in various formats and analyze it according to different business needs.

Whether you're a broadcaster needing to provide real-time analytics to your advertisers to measure ad efficacy, a legal team seeking to translate, transcribe, or redact media evidence, or a law enforcement agency needing to use facial recognition to find a possible perpetrator within your database, Veritone aiWARE can work for you.

Browse the resources below to see how Veritone aiWARE works for your specific industry needs:

- AI for Media & Entertainment
